

River Falls Public Library and River Falls Community Education present...

Soup, Salad &

A blue square containing the word "Science" in white, slanted diagonally from the top-left to the bottom-right.

This monthly program includes a light meal & lecture/discussion on a variety of topics. Talks will take place on the 3rd Thursday of the month, 5:30-7:30 p.m. at the Free!

Feb 15 - Eileen Korenic, Professor of Physics, UW River Falls

Topic/Title: “Why Car Tires Go Backwards on TV – The Stroboscopic Effect”

March 15 - Tonya Schoenfuss, Professor, Dairy Products Technology, Univ. of MN, Dept. of Food Science & Nutrition

Topic/Title: Prebiotics: What are they? What do they do?

April 19 - Gregory Siragusa, Senior Principal Scientist – Microbiology, Eurofins Microbiology Laboratories, Inc., New Berlin, WI.

Topic/Title: “Meet Your New Closest FriendsAll Ten Trillion of Them” : How modern biology has learned about the bacteria we all carry on and in our bodies.

River Falls Public Library, 140 Union Street
Please pre-register at www.rflearns.org so that we have a head count food!